

TABLE OF CONTENTS

1. From rags to riches.....	1
2. Price Brothers 1820 to 1940.....	5
3. From square timber to pulpwood.....	15
4. Cutting edge technology.....	19
5. From sulphite to kraft.....	31
6. Consolidated Paper 1887 to 1940.....	33
7. Abitibi Power and Paper 1909 to 1946.....	45
8. Bowater 1910 to 1944.....	53
9. Ontario Paper Company 1913 to 1940.....	59
10. Canadian International Paper 1925 to 1940.....	65
11. Donohue 1920 to 1942.....	69
12. A private island and other properties.....	73
13. The war effort.....	81
14. Research & innovation.....	87
15. From north to south.....	93
16. Ontario Paper 1940s to 1995 (Quebec & Ontario, QUNO).....	97
17. Abitibi 1946 to 1974.....	105
18. Bowater 1947 to 2007.....	107
19. Consolidated Paper 1945 to 1989 (Consolidated Bathurst).....	119
20. Price 1950s to 1974.....	123
21. From low-yield to high-yield sulphite pulp.....	127
22. From Fourdriniers to gap formers.....	129
23. Canadian International Paper 1950s to 1998 (CIP, CPFP, Avenor).....	133
24. From stone groundwood to thermomechanical pulp.....	137
25. From paper charts to big data.....	143
26. Donohue 1950s to 2000.....	145
27. Abitibi-Price 1974 to 1997.....	149
28. Specialty papers.....	159
29. Recycled content.....	165
30. Stone-Consolidated 1989 to 1997.....	173
31. Environmental protection.....	177
32. The Saguenay flood 1996.....	181
33. Abitibi-Consolidated 1997 to 2007.....	185
34. AbitibiBowater 2007 to 2011.....	197
35. Resolute Forest Products.....	205
36. Sustainability.....	211
37. The road ahead for Resolute.....	217
Photo sources.....	221
APPENDIX.....	223
INDEX.....	233
REFERENCES.....	237